

Jill Antonishak

Evaluation Consultant

Jill Antonishak, Ph.D., is the Managing Director of 3 Flights Consulting, and the Evaluation Consultant to The National Campaign. Jill is a community and developmental psychologist with extensive experience in evaluation and the development of strengths-based prevention programs, including family support and resilience promotion programs.

Prior to her evaluation work with the Campaign, Jill worked on a range of state policy issues at the Pew Charitable Trusts. Jill was an American Association for the Advancement of Science's Congressional Fellow for the Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions Committee. After her fellowship, she was hired as full-time staff on the Committee, with a focus on health, mental health, and strengthening families. She received her Ph.D. from the University of Virginia and her B.A. from Goucher College. She has received fellowships from the National Institute of Mental Health, the Pediatric AIDS Foundation, and the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues.
