

Mobile Teen Selected for National Youth Leadership Program

---

Brittany Ransom, 17, of Mobile was recently selected as a member of The National Campaign to Prevent Teen and Unplanned Pregnancy's 2013-2014 Youth Leadership Team (YLT).

The Youth Leadership Team is a diverse group of 17 teens from across the country each of whom serve an 18-month term. The group's first meeting was Aug. 7 in Washington, D.C.,

Ransom is part of the Model UN, the German Honor Society, the Student Government Association, the International Baccalaureate Program, and is an avid dancer.

Each YLT class is recruited from national, state, and local youth-serving organizations, such as various Students Against Destructive Decisions (SADD), Hispanas Organized for Political Equality, the Girl Scouts, the United Native Indian Tribal Youth Council, and others of similar caliber and reach.

The National Campaign to Prevent Teen and Unplanned Pregnancy is a private, non-profit organization that seeks to improve the lives and future prospects of children and families. For more information, visit www.TheNationalCampaign.org and www.StayTeen.org.